Bob,

They were selling these new Poppies at a train station in Palos hill station. They are green with a yellow center. The tag says " The forgotten war Korea 1950-1953" The back of the tag says" In remembrance of them" I enclosed a scan picture of the Poppy.

Hi everyone!

Knowing that Bob Kalen would be sending a newsletter shortly after the Atlanta Reunion, I promised Bob some remarks about a particular highlight of my trip to Atlanta. The special caterer that was in charge at the Southern Museum of Civil War Locomotive History, to my surprise was a former resident of Tackawanna, a small city near Buffalo, New York. Her name is Adriene Jarson, maiden name Grozd, and is of Polish descent. She and I really enjoyed speaking in Polish to each other and discussing the food served by Polish caterers and discussing some local places around Buffalo. There ^{are} quite a few caterers of Polish descent in the Western New York area, especially Buffalo. What a small world indeed. It felt like "Old Home Week". Enclosed is a picture of the caterer at our table. Further comments about the reunion will be forthcoming!

Your 765th Reunion Friends,
Dick, Cindy + Kristen

This is the first newsletter that I'll be sending through e-mail, for those of you with the capability, if you do have e-mail and would like to receive it this way, please send me your e-mail address to bob@kalan.net. Photo's in the printed newsletter are in black and white, while through e-mail, you can receive them in color. We discussed this at the meeting and those with e-mail were for it.

The cover letter of this current newsletter was printed before our reunion so, the officers' names are incorrect. Below, you will find the correct listing.

Subject: supermarket

The new supermarket near our house, has an automatic water mister to keep the produce fresh. Just before it goes on, you hear the sound of thunder and the smell of fresh rain. When you approach the milk cases, you hear cows mooing and experience the scent of fresh hay. When you approach the egg case, you hear hens clucking and cackle and in the is filled with the pleasing aroma of bacon and eggs frying. The veggie department features the sound of a gentle breeze and the smell of fresh butted corn.

I don't buy toilet paper there anymore!

The Wheels of Life

Getting older has its drawbacks, but I guess there aren't too many good alternatives to getting older. Whenever you see a gathering of seniors, it is an even bet they are talking about everything that is wrong with them.

You know, the usual, memory, urinary problems, knees, eyesight, etc.,

THIS LAST REUNION WAS THE SMALLEST THAT WE HAVE HAD SO FAR. THIS NEWSLETTER IS THE SMALLEST I'VE DONE. ARE WE LOSING INTEREST?

Bob & Audrey

Hope everyone has a good time at the reunion. Al & I were planning on coming, as one of our daughters lives in Dunwoody Ga. Al had total knee replacement in July and has finished therapy, but has to continue to get stronger. Walking better, but not too long of distance.

We will be looking forward to your newsletter telling us about your good time.
Hope all is well with you and Audrey.

Take care,
Betty Geurts

Bill - Billie - 765,

With many regrets we find that we cannot attend the reunion in Atlanta. We will miss it for the second year in a row we have a conflict with a pre-arranged cruise, (Sept 3/05). This cruise was arranged and awaited for over two years ago. It is an exciting small ship cruise from Rhode Island into New York Harbor, up the Hudson to Albany, Erie canal, (300 miles) to the Great Lakes Thousand Islands, Montreal & Quebec and we had to wait two years for reservations. You're in our thoughts and will plan better next year. Enclosed $20 dues

e-mail received from Dolores Armstrong to Nancy Cunningham:

Hi,

I have been going through my fathers (Antonio O. Becerra) service pictures/papers trying to organize them into a nice photo album for him to enjoy and I came across a flyer from a reunion in 2000 (Chicago?) and also a newsletter from a King Davenport.

I believe my father received a copy of these from his good friend and fellow service buddy Louie Gonzales (1950-1953 ish). Sadly, Louie passed away last year. He was a wonderful friend to my dad and they kept in touch throughout the years.

I saw the news clipping that said that we could send away info to try to get a Korean Service War medal and have just sent all the paperwork in. (I'm hoping it's not too late and if it comes it will be nice to give to him as a surprise)

Of course this got me wondering if there were any other newsletters or updates on the internet that I could possibly find and pass along any info to him? That is how I came across your names. Is there a way I can add my dad to your newsletter group? Are you online (Internet?)

Thanks for any info.
Dolores Armstrong

P.S. — I enjoyed your website Nancy. (I would have loved to have seen names next to the beautiful pictures as I was curious of who was who.)

You've put a lot of good work into it!

Yes, here is the reunion group we all even went to Korea last year

<http://griffincunningham.net/765reunionorg/main.htm>

contact Ron Tori, the president and let him know who you are and then contact Bob Kalan and have him add you and your dad to the newsletter list!

Thanks for the compliments it's the least I can do

Thanks Nancy

Ron

My name is Dolores Armstrong and I am writing to you (and Bob Kalan) to see if my dad and I could be added to your newsletter list. My dad served in Korea during the period 1950-1952. I stumbled across an old newsletter that was given to my dad as I was putting together a photo album of his service years. My dad had very fond memories of his time in the Army and the men he met.

Please let me know what other specific info you would need to add us to your mailing list:

Hello friends!

This last reunion (Atlanta), was a great one! Lanny Tayloe did a terrific job in setting it up, we thank you Lanny for a job well done! You definitely have earned your "rank" into our reunion group! As usual, Bill and Billie Hill donated their talents and time too, thank you Bill and Billie. Gladys Tayloe celebrated her 90th birthday this year and as always was involved in everything, she even went to the late night ball game.

This was though, the smallest reunion group yet. Various, (serious), reasons prevented some of our members to attend, there were two last minute cancellations. Edith & Jack Acosta couldn't make it, Edith's brother had passed away, (our sympathies go out to Edith), a few days before the reunion. Nancy & Ben Smith couldn't attend as Nancy was leaking blood from an Artery (or vein), every time her heart beat. Ben took her to the hospital a few days before the reunion and just in time! She needed 8 pts of blood, we hope she's doing well now. Marlene Torii had open heart surgery for repair work, before the reunion but was able to attend and was doing fine.

Since no one had offered their talent(s) for taking over next years' reunion, Sue Hamilton volunteered Cincinnati for our site. Her daughter, Cheryl (husband Perry), Schneider will investigate the options in Cincinnati; Our thanks go out to them for their interest in our group/family.

We are holding our own here in sunny Las Vegas although, today as we put this newsletter together, it is actually OVERCAST! That is unique and somewhat of a treat out here; the temp. isn't bad either, 82. We hope this letter finds you doing well and taking care of yourselves! Our best,

Bob, Audrey and Dan too
